

I love XM sateline radio. The traffic & weather reports are wonderful at home and when we travel. We are able to find out local temperatures and conditions so we are prepared for whatever may come our way. This is a super service to provide people who travel, especially when so many roads are under construction. You can find out how to avoid congested areas and preent backups which can cause accidents.

Please do not take the great service away.